ABOUT ME

I am native of El Paso, Tx but raised in Juarez, Mexico, therefore I have dual nationality. I am fluent English and Spanish. Both dad and mom have bachelor's degree in engineering and a brother pursuing biomedical engineering at Rhodes College. I serve in my community in a Christian church teaching kids from 6–12-year-old and doing other community service.

As a young man, my aspiration is to play basketball in Europe, Asia or Australia. I am pursuing Computer Science/ software engineer and my plan is to represent my future college for my entire 4 years.

I ran my 1st ever basketball camp in Colombia and able to teach kids from 6-12-th grades basic and advance basketball drills

I am a tough defender, High IQ, drive thru the paint and shooter
